

SURVIVOR SOUTH AFRICA Sant Carolina

Wednesdays at 19:30

FAN-FAVOURITE

It was a close call, but Survivor fans sided with ex-stripper Gigi...

You know what, people often have the wrong idea. On Friday and Saturday nights we get lots of girls coming to the club in groups. They dress up, they jump on the stage and they enjoy themselves. I think girls enjoy it because they don't have guys pestering them – the guys are too fixated on the dancers! We even get couples coming in, and then the girlfriend often dances for her man. It's fabulous!

Do you think South African women are starting to change their attitudes towards stripping?

Most definitely. Women are much more liberal these days, which is nice. The female clientele is certainly expanding. It's not just a place for men anymore!
