OH BOY, IT'S A BOY!

MEDIA personality ZURAIIDA JARDINE can't wait to become a mom for the second time. The Life's a Journey presenter and her producer hubby Josh Lindberg had hoped to provide a sister for daughter Zaria (14 months) but a scan revealed it's a boy.

"I just found out a few days ago. It's very exciting," Zuraida, who is nearly six months pregnant, told us at a high tea organised by celeb party-planner EDITH VENTER at the swanky Palazzo Hotel at the Montecasino entertainment complex.

She's just started shooting the second season of the SABC3 health and lifestyle show but without former Mr South Africa Stephen Segal. "This little guy is going to be my co-star," Zee said, patting her tummy. Also at the do was THULI SITHOLE. The former Miss SA says she's struggling to find the will-power to start exercising again after having her son, Thando, six months ago. "I haven't been to the gym," she said. "Every day I keep thinking, today's the day but it hasn't happened yet." We know the feeling.
